

MINERS MAY WORK AGAIN VERY SOON.

STRIKE SEEMS LIKELY TO FIZZLE OUT.

West Virginia Men Disgusted At the Outcome of the Cleveland Convention—Illinois Strikers Agree On a Method of Warfare—Determined to Prevent Men From Working.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 23.—The indications are that the coal miners will go to work soon. They are much dissatisfied over the Cleveland convention outcome.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., May 23.—This morning a committee comprising three men of every tongue spoken in this mining region starts on a tour of the mining camps that are mining coal in the northern section of Illinois with the purpose in view to stop them if possible. If they refuse the committee is instructed to immediately return and report the same, when an army of 4,000 miners will be organized to march upon those camps to use, so they claim, nothing more than moral suasion and try and shame them into discontinuing work.

In the event that the army is organized and commences to move the first objective point will be Sheffield, a little town thirty miles from here that is supplying the Rock Island railway with coal. About one hundred men work there. From there the army will go to Kewanee and then to Viola. The latter place the men want to stop more than the others, as they mine a great deal of coal there for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway. Another place the men of this district want to reach is Cable, but their going there depends altogether upon how their commissary wagons hold out. Locally the situation has changed since the last report. The anarchists have allowed the company the privilege without interference of hiring men to work on the fire. The local officers of the union could not influence them, but when telegrams came from President McBride and State President Crawford counseling peace and asking them to allow men to work on the fire they yielded.

GUARDED WITH WINCHESTERS.

Serious State of Affairs Reported at Danville, Ill.—Aid Is Asked.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 23.—Forty deputy sheriffs surround the Mission Field mines. Forty Winchester rifles from Chicago and 100 from St. Louis have been taken out to the mines. The United Mine Workers held an all-night session Monday night in this city, debating the Mission Fields matter. They expected the miners there to come out, but they went to work as usual. It is said here on the strength of the report the striking miners will go to Mission Fields 800 strong this morning. President Ridgely of the Consolidated Coal company at Springfield has called on the governor for help.

STANTON, Ill., May 23.—The Consolidated Coal company, in order to protect the Stanton miners from strikers, has secured 100 Winchester shotguns, with several hundred pounds of shells loaded with buckshot, reports having reached Stanton that the strikers intend to return here and force working miners to stop work. Both mines are working full force.

PECATONICA, Ill., May 23.—The effects of the coal famine are being felt severely here. Many factories will have to close down in a few days.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 23.—Trouble is expected here soon. At the "Big Four" mine thirty miners, principally negroes, are working, and it is understood here that a delegation of strikers from Duquoin, Belleville and other adjacent mines will be here to-day to force the men out.

LA SALLE, Ill., May 23.—There was a riot here last evening by a number of striking miners. Ben Hetherington, the pit boss, and his two sons were severely pommelled and several others were badly hurt, but none fatally.

ANOTHER COAL CONFERENCE.

Operators Will Meet at Columbus and Discuss the Pittsburgh Action.

CHICAGO, May 23.—A conference of Ohio coal operators will begin in Columbus this morning. The conference is regarded as important, but no one attempted to predict what effect its results might have on the general strike situation. The operators in the western states particularly insist they ought to settle their difficulties alone. A leading operator from Ohio said if the Miners' union would recede from its demand for a settlement which should take in every state the Ohio operators could settle the troubles with their own men in ten minutes. Indiana and Illinois operators also resent the idea that their local difficulties must not be adjusted until all others are settled. Indiana coal operators will probably issue an invitation to Illinois operators to meet them and discuss measures for their mutual interest.

At a meeting of operators of the Brazil district held in this city yesterday this course was practically decided on. Those present agreed that the differences between themselves and their men should be settled without outside help and without reference to strike troubles in the east. Some of the operators expressed themselves in favor of adopting measures of active resistance to the strike by opening their mines with non-union men. These and other measures will be discussed at another meeting to be held to-morrow.

MINERS ON THE WARPATH.

They Meet at Fayette City, Pa., and Parade and Look for Trouble.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 23.—The strikers of the fourth pool on the Monongahela river are on the warpath, and there is likely to be serious trouble in that vicinity. At daylight yesterday the strikers assembled at Fayette City, 100 strong, and arming themselves with shotguns and revolvers started for Sickle Hollow to bring the workmen out. They made a big demonstration but accomplished nothing.

AKRON, Ohio, May 23.—Major F. C. Bryan of the Eighth regiment was called to Tuscarawas county, where trouble is threatened among the coal miners. Strikers are driving miners from their work.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, May 23.—Two hundred striking miners from camps near this city marched to Gavin yesterday to assist in the demonstration. There are at least 1,500 strikers on the ground, and trouble is feared.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 23.—The blooming mill department at the Midland steel works is closed and the men are on a strike. The men work by the ton. They put in a day last week repairing machinery and demanded extra pay. The company refused, saying they would fill the strikers' places. The other employees, if a fair settlement is not made, will join the bloomers. The mill employs 340 hands.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—President McBride said last night he was gratified at the reports received from various sections of the country showing the condition of the strike. Reports from Iowa are that the entire state is in line, with no indications of a break. A special from the Hocking Valley says the miners in the Hocking Valley have settled themselves down for a siege.

Miners Sidetrack Coal Trains.

CLINTON, Ind., May 23.—The great strike of the coal miners is fast growing more critical. Almost all industries will soon be compelled to close down. The men have also commenced to stop and sidetrack all trains passing over the Chicago & Eastern Illinois from the southern part of the state. They are determined no coal mined by convict labor in the south shall pass here.

THE COMMONWEALERS.

Sanders' Men at Topeka Will Be Released—Randall at Van Wert, Ohio.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 23.—The status of the case against Gen. Sanders and his army of commonwealers was somewhat changed yesterday afternoon by the transmission of a dispatch from Judge C. G. Foster of the United States District court to District Attorney Perry that unless he consented to discharge all the Sanders men except five or six he would have to issue habeas corpus. Attorney Perry has not yet been heard from.

DENVER, Colo., May 23.—Rio was received at the office of the Rio Grande Western railway in this city to-day that 250 commonwealers seized a train at Thistle Junction, Utah, last night. The train was sidetracked, but the commonwealers are still in possession with flags flying.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 23.—A hundred Poles out of work attempted to enlist in Sullivan's commonweal army here, but were refused, as they desired to go simply to get subsistence, having no clear idea of the purposes of the movement. The wealers are weather bound here and will not start out until fair weather comes.

VAN WERT, Ohio, May 23.—Randall's army marched into Van Wert yesterday. They went into camp on the fair grounds. The township trustees will furnish provisions.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—Mosher and thirty-six men left here yesterday for Washington on foot, via national road.

MISSOULA, Mont., May 23.—As the eastbound fast freight was pulling out of Noxen, a little station near the Idaho line, yesterday 160 members of the Northwestern industrial army boarded it. Troops soon dislodged the Coxietes.

FABRICAULT, Minn., May 23.—The Minnesota or Minneapolis branch of the commonweal army arrived in this city last evening. The army consists of between fifty and sixty.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—Mosher's army, recruited in this city, fifty-six strong, started from here on the march to Washington yesterday.

OMAHA, Neb., May 23.—Breckenridge and Colehan, the Sheffield industrial army officers who were arrested on a telegram from Marshal Pinkham of Idaho, are still in the city jail, though their sympathizers here have been making every effort to get them out.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 23.—Frye's army made its entrance into the city yesterday.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Michael Fitzgerald and his forty-three industrial delegates have arrived here.

Triangular Duel Principals Killed.

PLAQUEMINE, La., May 23.—At Dorseyville, fourteen miles below this town, on the Texas & Pacific railroad, an Italian and a negro got into an altercation in the front of the store of Adolph Block and Jules Lebe, who are brothers-in-law. The negro took offense at something that was said to him by the young men and started off to get his gun, they doing the same. In ten minutes the trio met, armed, and the shooting began.

GORMAN PLEADING ON A TARIFF VOTE.

SMOOTH "SUGAR" EXPERT WHEEDLES THE SENATE.

Points Out to Democrats the Danger to Which the Party Is Exposed and Calls For Speedy Action—Patrick Walsh Already Obligated to Apologize For His Law.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Senator Gorman after eulogizing the democratic party in a carefully prepared speech today appealed to the members of the senate for a speedy vote on the tariff bill. A vote on tariff seems about the last thing to be expected just now.

Before the tariff bill was taken up in the senate yesterday, Mr. Walsh, the new senator from Georgia, arose to a personal explanation in connection with a newspaper paragraph from St. Paul stating that the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers had adopted resolutions condemning him for introducing a bill making the retarding of the United States mail punishable by imprisonment for twenty years. Mr. Walsh explained that the bill aimed at heavier penalties for train robbers; the engineers had construed it as an attempt to punish trainmen who should "tie up" a train in a strike. The bill he had introduced was loosely worded and possibly liable to the construction the locomotive engineers had placed upon it, but it was not intended either directly or indirectly to be subject to such construction. In conclusion, Mr. Walsh reintroduced his bill in a modified form so as to leave no doubt of its purpose.

After this the tariff debate was resumed, seven paragraphs of the metal schedule being disposed of, the discussion at times being animated. After a short executive session the senate adjourned.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM LAID LOW.

The House Rejects the Appropriation for the Commission.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The question of civil service reform was given full sway in the house yesterday, the occasion being the amendment to strike out the paragraph in the legislative appropriation bill providing for the civil service commission. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 169 to 71. No other amendments of any importance were made in the bill, the only ones adopted being to correct the totals of a few amendments to which amendments were made Monday.

Several democrats opposed the amendment, virtually abolishing the commission, but it was adopted by nearly a strict party vote. Among the democrats who voted with the republicans in favor of civil service reform were Wilson, Tracey, Hendrix, Dockery, Warner, Springer, Sayers, Crain, Martin, Kilgore, Livingston, Deforest, and Everett.

The vote on division was 96 to 61. Cries of no quorum and demands for tellers were made, the vote by tellers being 109 to 71. Mr. Dingley gave notice he would demand yeas and nays. It being then after 5 o'clock the committee rose and the house adjourned. In the earlier proceedings the resolution providing for an investigation of the alleged armor-plate frauds was adopted.

Major Buttz Goes Out of Town.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—C. W. Buttz was not on hand when the investigating committee met yesterday. Instead he sent his attorney, asked to be excused from attendance for the present. The committee called the sergeant-at-arms to their assistance and directed that a subpoena be issued for Buttz. While waiting the committee called in several senators, including Messrs. Voorhees, Harris, and Coke, who said they knew nothing of attempts to bribe senators. The sergeant-at-arms reported at 12 o'clock that he had failed to find Buttz, who, it was stated, had gone to a suburban town.

To Elect Senators By Direct Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The house committee on the election of President and Vice-President has voted to make a favorable report on the bill of Representative Tucker of Virginia providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people. The report was agreed upon by a nearly unanimous vote.

AT THE MERCY OF FIRE.

Des Moines Waterworks Will Close for Want of Coal.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 23.—The coal strike is assuming a serious aspect here. The coal supplies at the waterworks and light companies are almost exhausted. The waterworks, unless something turns up, will close down Thursday morning, leaving the people without any water and the city in danger of fire. Mayor Hillis yesterday met a committee of miners and asked them to permit men to dig enough coal to keep the waterworks running. The miners replied that they proposed to make no concession even to the waterworks. The sheriff and the governor may be called on to protect men who are willing to work.

To Succeed Geat In Congress.

KEOKUK, Iowa, May 23.—At the republican county convention at Donnellson yesterday Samuel M. Clark of Keokuk was formally presented as a congressional candidate to succeed John H. Gear.

CAN SLEEPERS RUN DURING THE STRIKE

PULLMAN CARS MAY BE FORMALLY BOYCOTTED.

Representatives of Railroad Men's Union Discuss the Subject in St. Louis Today—Sympathy Strike Likely to Be Brought On—Steel Scale Not Arranged.

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—The secret committees of the various railroad unions are in session to-day to determine if the roads shall have Pullman cars as long as the Pullman strike lasts.

St. Louis, Mo., May 23.—A meeting of Pullman car shop employees of this city was held last night at which Vice-President George W. Howard of the American Railway Union was present. The men organized a union and decided that if the demands of the men in the Pullman, Ill., shops were not granted they would go out. There is no change in the situation at Pullman. Switchmen Pass on Disability Claims.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 23.—The grand lodge of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association spent yesterday in passing upon claims for disability amounting to $75,000. The constitution as revised was finally adopted, making it obligatory on members to take out insurance in one of two classes, the first being for $1,000 and the second for $500.

The Scale Has Not Been Arranged.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 23.—The convention of the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers resumed consideration of the scale question yesterday. The work wasn't completed.

REPUBLIC OF HAWAII.

Such Is to Be the New Government at Honolulu.

HONOLULU, May 23, via San Francisco, May 23.—The new constitution has been drawn up by the council and will be presented to the convention May 30. The new government is to be called "The Republic of Hawaii." There are to be a president and an executive council of five, and fifteen senators will comprise the upper house of the legislature, to be elected in classes of five each at the next general election. Qualifications for senator are the same as in the United States, with the exception that each shall have a property worth $5,000 and an income of $1,200 a year.

The lower house, to be called the assembly, shall consist of fifteen members, six from Oahu and three each from Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai. They will serve two years. A member must have resided in Hawaii at least a year, and must read and write English or Hawaiian. Meetings of legislatures are to be held every two years, each session to last not longer than ninety days.

President Dole will probably retain his office for two years and perhaps longer. The next president is to be chosen by the people.

Those who are framing the new government's charter do not deem it advisable to go before the people just yet on the question of the executive. As the president is to appoint the members of the executive council or cabinet, those now in power will undoubtedly hold over. The ministry at present consists of four members, and one is to be added as minister of health and education.

It is asserted that the loyalists are ready to make a bold move for the reinstatement of Liliuokalani as soon as the new republic is declared. They believe Admiral Walker will aid them, thinking he will carry out the original policy of President Cleveland.

Surveying parties are busy at Pearl harbor every day, and there is no longer any doubt that it will soon be accepted by the United States as a coaling station.

News from Japan is of an alarming nature, and shows that unless this government accedes to the mikado's request that his subjects be granted equal franchise with the natives diplomatic relations with Hawaii will at once break off.

Minister Lorin Thurston will not return to Washington, but will accept the portfolio of minister of foreign affairs in Dole's cabinet. A. S. Hartwell, a prominent lawyer, will succeed Thurston at Washington.

Minister Willis is gaining in favor among Hawaiians, and his recent actions have tended to allay the feeling of distrust against him. Mrs. Willis is in poor health, and the family are now living at Waikiki Beach.

Illinois May Have an Extra Session.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 23.—A large number of the most influential democrats in state circles will ask Gov. Altgeld to convene the legislature of Illinois in special session not later than June 15. Under Sec. 8 of the constitution the governor has this power on extraordinary occasions, but he must specify in his proclamation the business for which the session is called, and nothing other than that so stated can be transacted. The idea is to have a new senatorial apportionment made, to go into effect July 1. It is to repeal the act of 1893 and by making some few trivial changes in the measure get a new senatorial apportionment.

Oates Nominated for Governor.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 23.—The democratic convention nominated Col. W. C. Oates for governor. The choice was made on the first ballot. Oates received 272 votes to Johnson's 232.

EASTERN RIVERS ARE FALLING.

The Worst Now Believed to Be Over In Pennsylvania—Damage at Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 23.—All of the horrors of this disastrous flood of 1889 have been repeated, and Williamsport and all of the country around has been swept away by a mighty river that spread out over almost every portion of the city, carrying away with it property of such value that it is utterly impossible to calculate the amount. The river is now going down rapidly and one-half the flooded territory is out of water. This is in the center of the city. The lower portions east and west are yet under water, and as the rain that has continued unceasingly for forty-eight hours did not stop falling until to-day the river is likely to keep up during the next twenty-four hours. When communication with the outside world was cut off at 2 o'clock Monday morning by the breaking of the wires the river had overflowed its banks east and west. It rapidly came up and spread out over the city, and early yesterday morning it was impossible to get anywhere except by the use of boats. The night was one of terrible experiences. The water came up so rapidly in some parts that the people in their houses were compelled to flee to the upper stories for safety and were rescued from there by heroic boatmen, hundreds of whom risked their lives to save others in danger.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 23.—The Schuylkill river at Phoenixville is 13 feet above low-water mark and is still rising. The entire plant of the Phoenix Iron company is submerged to a depth of from 3 to 8 feet and operations have ceased. The Delaware river bank broke near the Greenwich piers in the morning, flooding a part of the island road west of Broad street and surrounding section. At Twenty-fourth and Chestnut streets the water is fully as high as it was Monday and all business at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad depot is suspended.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 23.—The rivers reached a stage of twenty-five and one-half feet in this city and are now falling. Beyond the flooding of the lowlands and the stoppage for a day of some of the factories along the banks of the streams no serious damage was done by the high water. The weather is clear to-day and the worst is thought to be over. The rivers are reported falling at the headwaters.

DANVILLE, N. Y., May 23.—Roadways in the Genesee valley have been injured more by the present flood than by any since 1850. The rush of water down the hillsides has inflicted almost as much loss in this respect as has been done by the overflow of farm lands. The aggregate loss will be very large.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 23.—A wash-out of ninety feet of track in Avon completely blocks the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad. The Erie railroad tracks in this city are covered with 8 inches of water.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 23.—As near as can be estimated the loss by the flood in the Conemaugh valley will be $125,000. The Pennsylvania railroad's loss is $50,000.

Bridge on the Missouri Swept Away.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., May 23.—A large portion of the pontoon bridge across the Missouri river at this place was carried away by the force of the current and lodged against the bank a mile below the city. The water is high in the river and is steadily rising. Some damage has already been done to farms on the bottom lands.

Investigating the Cummings Disaster.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 23.—The coroner began the work of investigating the Cummings disaster yesterday afternoon. There is a determination to get at all the facts in the case, and a better life-saving service is likely to be demanded from congress.

FARNHAM POST BACK.

Its Resolution Against Pension Frauds Forgiven by the G. A. R.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Noah L. Farnham Post, No. 158, G. A. R., is no longer an "Independent Veteran Association." It was taken back into the fold last night, and the installation of officers and privates was celebrated by Department Commander John C. Schotts. About 125 members of the old post were present and took the oath of allegiance. They were mustered in with patriotic speeches and the singing of old war songs. The action which caused the expulsion of Farnham Post from the Grand Army was a resolution it adopted March 8, 1893. This declared that the pension laws were being shamefully abused by many unworthy veterans. It is stated that many persons who were abundantly able to care for themselves, and who, in many cases, were occupying prominent positions in business and under the government, were drawing large pensions, while worthy old soldiers were starving.

Abolish Federal Fees.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Representative William A. Stone of Pennsylvania of the house judiciary committee has presented a favorable report on a bill introduced by him some months ago to place marshals, district attorneys and clerks of the United States courts on salary and abolish the system of fees. The bill fixes the salaries for marshals and district attorneys throughout the United States at $4,000 each, and leaves the compensation of clerks at such sum as the attorney-general shall decide, not exceeding $4,000 per annum.

GLADSTONE IS SICK AND FRIENDS WORRY

RETURN OF HIS FORMER AILMENT REPORTED.

Operation On His Eye Has Left Him In Poor Shape to Rally—Another Crisis Precipitated By Defeat of the French Administration in the Chamber.

LONDON, May 23.—Great alarm has been aroused here today by fresh news of W. E. Gladstone's illness. The ex-premier is in bad shape and his friends make no effort to conceal the fact that they are much concerned. He has suffered a return of the cold which disabled him some time ago. This coupled with the affection of his eyes makes his case more serious. French Cabinet Out.

PARIS, May 23.—In the chamber of deputies to-day, during the debate on the question as to whether the minister of public works had the authority to allow the employees of the great railroads to attend the congress of railroad men, the premier demanded the adoption of the order of the day pure and simple.

The motion was rejected by a vote of 275 to 225.

M. Casimir-Perier thereupon left the Palais Bourbon.

Will Be No War.

BUEENOS AYRES, May 23.—The dispute between the government of Portugal and the Argentine Republic respecting the recapture of the Brazilian refugees, who escaped from Portuguese warships, has been amicably settled.

AGAINST JUDGE JENKINS.

The House Yesterday Adopts the Boatner Report.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Judge Jenkins was yesterday condemned by the house judiciary committee by the adoption of the Boatner report. The result will be the introduction of the bills to correct the law so as to prevent a duplication of the Jenkins injunctions and the offering of a resolution condemning his course. The bill and resolution will be prepared by the Boatner committee and submitted to the full committee for approval. Mr. Stone, the republican member of the subcommittee, will probably introduce a minority report, which the republicans will doubtless support.

Mr. Bailey, in voting for the Boatner report, did so only after reserving the right to vote in the house for impeachment should a resolution to that effect be offered. Mr. Bailey fully believes that Judge Jenkins should be impeached. It may be that Judge Jenkins has violated no statutory law, but the constitution provides that an officer of the United States shall be impeached "for treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors." Mr. Bailey interprets misdemeanor to mean misconduct, and he fails to see how Judge Jenkins' action can be construed to have been anything less than misconduct.

WON'T MEET THE COLONEL.

Lexington Women Will Stay at Home If Breckinridge Speaks.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 23.—Mr. Owens will speak in Lexington Monday afternoon, June 11. This will be his first appearance here since Breckinridge opened the campaign and plans are on foot to make it a rousing demonstration. The Owens club to-day decided to send invitations to Breckinridge and Settle to speak at the same meeting. A complication has arisen as the women of Lexington had been invited to attend the meeting and had signified their intention of turning out in large numbers. They now say that if Owens and Settle debate they will gladly attend, but if Breckinridge accepts the invitation they will have nothing to do with the meeting. It is possible the Owens club may reconsider its action.

BIMETALLISTS' CONVENTION.

Delegates Present From South and Central America and Mexico.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Pan-American bimetallic association composed of representatives from the United States, South and Central America and Old Mexico, met in congress yesterday in Grand Army hall under the guidance of Col. A. C. Fisk of Denver, Colo., president of the association. The purpose of the congress is to memorialize congress to restore silver to its ancient right at a ratio not to exceed sixteen to one.

Test of the Cruiser Columbia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 23.—The cruiser left her moorings at the navy yard on the morning of May 17. The test with the screws was satisfactory, the vessel developing eighteen and one-half knots an hour under natural draught, without any particular effort being made, this being considered an excellent result for a vessel lying so deep in the water.

Spring Valley Mine Fire Increasing.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., May 23.—No. 1 mine of the Spring Valley Coal company is burning worse than ever and the company will either have to wall the fire in or take all the men out, stop the fans and smother it.

LOT OF SUITS BEGUN OVER BEMIS PATENTS

ALLEGED IMITATION OF A JANESVILLE TRANSPLANTER.

Madison Firm Who Bought the Rights Four Years Ago Are Prosecuting Ohio Farmers For Using the Infringing Machine—Defendants Declare the Suit a Bluff.

Users of the "New Bemis" tobacco planter have been hauled into court. The machine is to be an Ohio infringement on the Janesville transplanter invented by J. W. Bemis. The suits have been begun by Fuller & Johnson, of Madison, who manufacture the machine.

The suits are virtually directed against the J. W. Stoddard Manufacturing Company of Canton, Ohio, which is selling a machine very similar to that of the Fuller & Johnson Company, and to which the Ohio company has given the name of the New Bemis tobacco transplanter. The Ohio company however, is out of the jurisdiction of the Wisconsin courts, and suits therefore are brought against the farmers who have purchased the New Bemis and the agents who handle it. Accordingly complaints were filed by the Fuller & Johnson Company through its attorney, W. B. Bagley, in the United States circuit court yesterday afternoon against twelve prominent farmers of southern Wisconsin for alleged infringement of its patents. Suits have also been commenced in the state courts against agents of the Ohio company for injunctions to restrain them from using the trade marks of the Fuller & Johnson company, the trade marks in question being vested especially in the word "Bemis." This method is employed for the purpose of getting at the Ohio manufacturers, and it is expected that they will ask to be joined in the issue.

Letters have been sent by the Fuller & Johnson company to farmers using the New Bemis, warning them that it was an infringement of its patents, but in most cases no attention has been paid to these letters, as the Ohio company has sent out circulars telling the farmers that the Fuller & Johnson company's claim was only a "bluff" for the purpose of securing their trade. Similar suits have been commenced all over the United States where tobacco transplanters are in use, and there are about one hundred of them in all. The Fuller & Johnson company purchased the patents about four years ago, and has had a large sale for the machines since. It was the first successful tobacco transplanter put on the market.

FUNERAL OF MISS THOMAS.

Services held at Emerald Grove, Rev. Mr. Manaton officiating.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Elsie Thomas were held at the home in Emerald Grove, Rev. Mr. Manaton of Shopiere officiating. There was singing by the college choir from Beloit and the interment was in the Grove cemetery. Many friends were present at the services.

[Written in memory of Elsie Thomas, by Mrs. J. T. Barless.]

We bore away our dearest one
Our sister loved by all
And, Oh with what a joyful heart
She heard the Masters call.

Of Jesus' wonderful love she spoke
And with her latest breath,
Poured forth her thanks to Him who gave
The victory over death.

Suffering all those weary months
Our loved one, our sister,
Dear Elsie is not dead, for life
With her has just begun.

We stood and watched her suffering face
When the spotless soul had flown,
We could not shed a tear when we Thought
That God had claimed His own.

Dear father she's robed in garments bright
And looks from yonder skies,
And tells us we will all be with her
Some day in paradise.

So weep not, dear brothers and sisters;
She has joined her dear mother above,
And gone to walk by her sister;
Up there we'll not part with our loved.

We could not wish you back, dear Elsie,
But we will miss you here below;
And yet they say that you are dead.
Nay, nay, it is not so.

CROPS NOT BADLY FROSTED.

Reports From State Observers Place the Damage At a Low Figure.

No great loss resulted from the breeze. The state crop bulletin issued yesterday says:

"The first of last week was marked by conditions favorable for a very rapid growth of grain and quick germination of sown seed. Corn and potatoes came up quickly and everything was most promising. In southern counties the planting was nearly completed and large progress made in all sections. On the morning of the 18th the conditions changed with great suddenness and rain, snow, cold high winds prevailed, followed Sunday morning by severe frosts and ice in nearly every county of the state. Ice a quarter of an inch in thickness is reported from many parts, while the snow is given at two to six inches. Corn, potatoes and garden truck, which was above ground, was cut down in many counties; small grain seems not to have suffered so much by the freeze, and, except in a few minor cases, it has withstood the cold without harm. It is probable that the high winds were the only saving agent and these caused some damage where grain had made a large growth. The full effect of the cold and wind will not be known before a week has passed especially on fruit. Correspondents generally consider the present cool and cloudy weather as favorable, making a more hardy growth and one which will withstand later frosts the better.

Of course all work is at a standstill, and must continue so until dry and warmer weather prevails.

Water was drawn from cranberry marshes the first of last week, but was again placed over the vines on the frost warnings of the morning of the 10th, so that it is thought no material injury was done. Tobacco plants were slightly injured, probably more by the snow and high winds.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCES.

Spirit of the Anniversary Indicated by Commander Watrous in His Order.

Carrying out the suggestions made at the Janesville encampment Commander J. A. Watrous has incorporated in his General Order No. 1 to the G. A. R. these words:

"Memorial Day is close at hand. It is not necessary to urge the comrades of this Department to properly observe Memorial Day, but I wish to make a suggestion or two. At the recent Department encampment a resolution was adopted, unanimously, urgently requesting the proper authorities to exert their influence in favor of Memorial day ceremonies in all of the colleges and public and private schools of the state, on the Friday afternoon or evening preceding Memorial Day, May 30. The value of such ceremonies would be very great in teaching patriotism and in preparing the young for good citizenship. I trust that the comrades will keep this question so constantly and so prominently before the public that it will not be long before impressive Memorial ceremonies are held in all of our educational institutions, public and private, each year, at the time indicated; and I am sure that you will all join me in the hope and belief that when the custom is adopted, it will exist throughout the life of the Republic. Ask the press, the pulpit, the boards, superintendents, teachers, children and the public generally to cooperate with you in establishing the custom. With that custom established, with Memorial ceremonies in the hundreds of thousands of educational institutions of our land, as the 30th of May approaches, we need never fear, comrades, that the nation we contributed something towards reestablishing, will abandon the observances that have become so dear to our hearts. Establish that custom and Memorial day exercises will be as notable for centuries to come as they have been since the day our ideal volunteer soldier and leader, John A. Logan, introduced the beautiful observance. The practice that has grown up of Posts going in a body to hear a patriotic sermon the Sunday evening previous to Memorial day is in all respects commendable, and should be continued. May we not greatly enlarge the number of patriotic sermons on the occasion by respectfully requesting the pastors of all the churches to preach a patriotic sermon on Sunday, morning or evening, preceeding the day we strew flowers upon the graves of our comrades? I here make the request of the pastors, of all denominations, and ask that the request be repeated and emphasized by the ex-soldiers and all other patriotic people in the state. Anything that tends to improve American citizenship—and patriotism does that—must be pleasing in the sight of God. Patriotic teaching, no matter where taught, tends to better citizenship."

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS CLIMB UNTIL 1895

NEW BUILDING NOT READY BEFORE FEBRUARY.

Council Will Not Be Asked to Take Any Further Step As the Site Was Announced in the Original Notice—Plans to Be Secured At Once.

High school pupils will continue to climb court house hill for some months to come.

It will be impossible to have the proposed new building ready for occupation before February.

School Commissioner Goldin was seen this morning, and expressed the opinion that the building could not be completed before that time.

"We have not done anything as yet in the building line; but I think the board will go ahead now, and in case there are no snags thrown in our way we can have the new building ready for occupation by February. No, we have not selected plans as yet, and I do not know who the architect will be. So far as I am concerned I propose to have some one draw the plans who knows something about a school house. I was favorably impressed with the high school building at Frankfort, Indiana. The building is made of stone and cost about $60,000. It is a handsome building with good grounds. If everything is favorable I think the board will take some steps to secure plans at the next meeting. I do not think it necessary for the council to take any further action in relation to a site. The board submitted a proposition to the council, asking for an appropriation of $55,000 for the purpose of purchasing a site (naming the Halverson property on High street) and the erection and equipping of a high school building. This has been approved by the council and people, and as I understand all other details are with the board of education. We have an option on the Halverson property, but no contract has been entered into. I believe the board will do the best they can with the appropriation and build a good school house and have it ready for use by February next."

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

Children's Day at South Turtle.

SOUTH TURTLE, May 22—The Sunday schools in the Murray district are making arrangements to observe Children's Sunday. A large number of our people are in Janesville this week. Miss Alice Hannahs spent Saturday and Sunday in Beloit. Carl Jack and bride will make their home in Chicago for the present. The neighborhood prayer meeting met at the home of Calvin Johnson Thursday evening. May baskets are heard in the land. Rev. Mr. Dexter preached in the Murray district Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied by his little girl. Don't forget the sing at the school house Saturday evening. The severe change in the weather is hard on all vegetation, and it is feared will damage fruit. A snow storm as late as the 18th of May is the exception rather than the rule. The many friends of Mrs. William Maxworthy will be sorry to learn that she has had a stroke of paralysis. The many friends of Irene Dresser will be grieved to learn that she is very low. L. K. Cogswell, a former resident of Turtle, and now living in Chehalis, Washington, and Miss L. A. Sprick, of Plum Station, were united in April 18. Mr. Cogswell's many friends in this part of the country join in wishing him much joy.

Patriotic Social at the Grove.

EMERALD GROVE, May 22—On Thursday evening of this week the social which was postponed from last week on account of cool weather will take place in the old church. The former programme will be carried out which is an assurance of a first class time. The proceeds are to defray expenses on Memorial day which will be observed as in former years. For that occasion good speaking and music have been engaged. Heavy rains fell during the past week which has kept considerable corn from being planted. The cool weather and frost on several mornings lately has kept corn from growing and in some fields the tender blades have been cut off. On Sunday at 3 p. m. the funeral services of Mrs. Robert L. Brown were held in the Congregational church here. They were conducted by Rev. Wilder, pastor of the Congregational church in Janesville, assisted by Rev. G. Hammond of this place. Mrs. Brown was born and raised in this place and during her short life among us made a multitude of friends, who mourn her departure as one taken from their own fireside. A quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jeffris, Mrs. Hugh Menzies and William Bladen rendered the song service and the pall bearers were D. E. Jones, F. H. Wetmore, George R. McLaughlin and W. J. Jones. James R. Lamb has purchased a registered Jersey bull from the World fair prize herd. The animal comes from "York State."

Potato Planter in South Clinton.

SOUTH CLINTON, May 22—Some of our farmers have clubbed together and bought a potato planter which does such good work as to make the owners jubilant. E. L. Benedict, the leader in the enterprise owns two shares, one of which he would be glad to sell to some interested party. Mrs. Jacket is on the sick list, having taken a severe cold. Rock county can boast of as great climatic changes as any other place we're thinking. The thermometer stood at 98 degrees Wednesday noon and Thursday noon it had gone down to 35 degrees with high wind, rain and hail. Friday noon the rain turned to snow lasting about an hour. Those who haven't planted their corn will be the fortunate ones if this weather lasts much longer. T. T. Nelson is making all property owners a visit nowadays. C. L. Benedict and wife attended church in Clinton Sabbath morning. Willard Hartshorn is having material drawn preparatory to erecting another large barn on the old Wood farm now owned by Mrs. Hartshorn. Mrs. Patch made a short visit at her daughter's not long since.

North Johnstown's Week.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, May 22—Earl Newton visited at his father's, W. H. Newton over Sunday. The next society of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. R. Cary. Our boys met the Richmond base ball nine in a matched game on T. Rice's flat Saturday. Our boys were not "in it." Score 28 to 9 in favor of Richmond. Farmers are nearly through planting their corn. Some planted early was frozen down Thursday and Friday nights. There will be two separators in the factory at the five corners in the near future. There will be a memorial service at the Free Baptist church Sunday, May 27, conducted by the pastor, who will tell you something of interest. Appropriate music will be furnished. The next Ladies' Aid society will be held at Mrs. George Roe's on Wednesday afternoon next. Choir practice at the F. B. church next Friday evening. C. A. Rice, whose leg was broken last New Year is able to walk around the house without his crutch. A number were at church Sunday from Utter's Corners. The concert given at the F. B. church Friday evening was a success. The quartette from Richmond and Millard gave us some very fine music. Also the Howard sisters. There is some talk of repeating it at Lima. Quarterly meetings will be held at Oak-land commencing next Friday night.

A $10,000 sale of property was made by the McKee estate yesterday Peter Wells, who at present owns a larger portion of Monroe than any one man, handed over ten thousand cold plunkers and papers were made out that made him owner of the old McKee block on the southwest corner of the square in that city. UNIFORM GAME LAWS WILL BE DRAFTED.

JANESVILLE SPORTSMEN ARE WATCHING THE MOVEMENT.

A Conference of Men From the Northwestern States—The Meeting Will Be Held at Minneapolis Next Month—Some Points in Which Existing Laws Are Defective.

Janesville sportsmen are interested in the meeting of sportsmen from Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Illinois and Iowa, which will be held in Minneapolis June 20 for the purpose of fully discussing the question of uniformity of game laws for these states, and with a view to adopting some plan of procedure to the end that the states may endorse the effort by passing uniform laws. The idea originates with the Milwaukee Sportsmen Association, which is now preparing an explanatory circular letter to be sent to sportsmen of the various states.

In speaking of the step, A. W. Friese said today: "The game laws as they now exist in this and adjacent states conflict greatly and the great necessity of some uniform system of laws is constantly apparent. Results have shown that where ducks are allowed to breed during the spring instead of being shot or driven away, the shooting in such localities is very much better when the proper time for hunting arrives. The shooting and shipping of game should be prohibited by all states, as it is the hunters for revenue who do much of the work of depletion in the spring. In this state as in several others, deer can only legally be killed during one month in the year, from October 1 to November 1. It would, however, be much better all around if the single month was changed so as to be between November 1 and December 1, and that dogs be universally prohibited. In fact, our game laws are sadly defective and a general change would be of great advantage to sportsmen as well as a just protection of game. But heretofore we have been sat down upon at Madison, and we think by uniting our efforts by the organization of one association of sportsmen from all the states named, something in the right direction can be done in time."

TABERNACLE FIRE WON'T STOP HIM.

DR. TALMAGE WILL CONTINUE HIS SERMONS.

The Burning of the Tabernacle Will Not Interfere With His Long Established Relations With the Newspapers—Last Sunday's Discourse.

Dr. Talmage will continue his sermons through the press until such time as a new tabernacle will have replaced the one destroyed by fire Sunday, May 13.

The text chosen for this week was 1 Samuel 30: 4, 19. "Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. David recovered all."

There is intense excitement in the village of Ziklag. David and his men are bidding good-bye to their families and are off for the wars. In that little village of Ziklag the defenseless ones will be safe until the warriors, flushed with victory, come home. But will the defenseless ones be safe? The soft arms of children are around the necks of the bronzed warriors until they shake themselves free and start, and handkerchiefs and flags are waved and kisses thrown until the armed men vanish beyond the hills. David and his men soon get through with their campaign and start homeward. Every night on their way home, no sooner does the soldier put his head on the knapsack than in his dream he hears the welcome of the wife and the shout of the child. Oh, what long stories they will have to tell their families of how they dodged the battle! and then will roll up their sleeves and show the half-healed wound. With glad, quick step, they march on. David and his men, for they are marching home. Now they come up to the last hill which overlooks Ziklag, and they expect in a moment to see the dwelling-places of their loved ones. They look, and as they look their cheeks turn pale, and their lips quiver, and their hands involuntarily come down on the hilt of the sword. "Where is Ziklag? Where are our homes?" they cry. Alas! the curling smoke above the ruin tells the tragedy. The Amalekites have come down and consumed the village, and carried the mothers and the wives and the children of David and his men into captivity. The swarthy warriors stand for a few moments transfixed with horror. Then their eyes glance to each other, and they burst into uncontrollable weeping; for when a strong warrior weeps, the grief is appalling. It seems as if the emotion might tear him to pieces. They "wept until they had no more power to weep." But soon their sorrow turns into rage, and David, swinging his sword high in air, cries, "Pursue, for thou shalt overtake them, and without fail recover all." Now the march becomes a "double-quick." Two hundred of David's men stop by the brook Besor, faint with fatigue and grief. They can not go a step farther. They are left there. But the other 400 men under David, with a sort of panther step, march on in sorrow and in rage. They find by the side of the road a half-dead Egyptian, and they resuscitate him, and compel him to tell the whole story. He says, "Yonder they went, the captors and the captives," pointing in the direction. Forward, ye 400 brave men of fire! Very soon David and his enraged company come upon the Amalekitish host. Yonder they see their own wives and children and mothers, and under Amalekitish guard. Here are the officers of the Amalekitish army holding a banquet. The cups are full, the music is roused, the dance begins. The Amalekitish host cheer and cheer and cheer over their victory. But, without note of bugle or warning of trumpet, David and his four hundred men burst upon the scene. David and his men look up, and one glance at their loved ones in captivity and under Amalekitish guard throws them into a very fury of determination; for you know how men will fight when they fight for their wives and children. Ah! there are lightnings in their eye, and every finger is a spear, and their voice is like the shout of the whirlwind! Amidst the upset tankards and the costly viands crushed underfoot, the wounded Amalekites lie (their blood mingling with their wine) shrieking for mercy. No sooner does David and his men win the victory than they throw their swords down into the dust—what do they want with swords now?—and the broken families come together amidst a great shout of joy that makes the parting scene in Ziklag seem very insipid in the comparison. The rough old warrior has to use some persuasion before he can get his child to come to him now after so long an absence; but soon the little fingers trace the familiar wrinkle across the scarred face. And then the empty tankards are set up, and they are filled with the best wine from the hills, and David and his men, the husbands, the wives, the brothers, the sisters, drink to the overthrow of the Amalekites and to the rebuilding of Ziklag. So, O Lord, let thine enemies perish!

Now they are coming home, David and his men and their families—a long procession. Men, women, and children, loaded with jewels and robes and with all kinds of trophies that the Amalekites had gathered up in years of conquest—everything now in the hands of David and his men. When they come by the brook Besor, the place where stayed the men sick and incompetent to travel, the jewels and the robes and all kinds of treasure are divided among the sick as well as among the well. Surely, the lame and exhausted ought to have some of the treasures. Here is a robe for a pale-faced warrior. Here is a pillow for this dying man. Here is a handful of gold for the wasted trumpeter. I really think that these men who fainted by the brook Besor may have endured as much as those men who went into the battle. Some mean fellows objected to the sick ones having any of the spoils. The objectors said, "These men did not fight." David, with a magnanimous heart, replies, "As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff."

This subject is practically suggestive to me. Thank God, in these times a man can go off on a journey, and be gone weeks and months, and come back and see his house untouched of incendiary, and have his family on the step to greet him if by telegram he has foretold the moment of his coming. But there are Amalekitish disasters, there are Amalekitish diseases, that sometimes come down upon one's home, making as devastating work as the day when Ziklag took fire. There are families you represent broken up. No battering-ram smote in the door, no iconoclast crumbled the statues, no flame leaped amidst the curtains; but so far as all the joy and merriment that once belonged to that house are concerned, the home has departed. Armed diseases came down upon the quietness of the scene—scarlet fevers, or pleurisies, or consumptions, or undefined disorders came and seized upon some members of that family and carried them away. Ziklag in ashes! And you go about, sometimes weeping and sometimes enraged, wanting to get back your loved ones as much as David and his men wanted to reconstruct their despoiled households. Ziklag in ashes! Some of you went off from home. You counted the days of your absence. Every day seemed as long as a week. Oh! how glad you were when the time came for you to go aboard the steamboat or rail car and start for home! You arrived. You went up the street where your dwelling was, and in the night you put your hand on the door bell, and, behold! it was wrapped with the signal of bereavement, and you found that Amalekitish Death, which has devastated a thousand other households, had blasted yours. You go about weeping amidst the desolation of your once happy home, thinking of the bright eyes closed, and the noble hearts stopped, and the gentle hands folded, and you weep until you have no power to weep. Ziklag in ashes!

A gentleman went to a friend of mine in the city of Washington, and asked that through him he might get a consulship to some foreign port. My friend said to him, "What do you want to go away from your beautiful home for, into a foreign port?" "Oh," he replied, "my home is gone! My six children are dead. I must get away, sir. I can't stand it in this country any longer." Ziklag in ashes!

Why these long shadows of bereavement across this audience? Why is it that in almost every assemblage black is the predominant color of the apparel? Is it because you do not like saffron or brown or violet? Oh no! You say, "The world is not so bright to us as once it was;" and there is a story of silent voices, and of still feet,

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows: "Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."—Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892. These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. NO TIME TO STRIKE.

If the laboring man but knew it, this is no time to press his demand for higher wages. The workingman should bear in mind that the employer often suffers far more than the employees think he does. The man who is trying to do business on insufficient capital, the manufacturer who finds his market closed and sales entirely stopped, with his expenses increasing on his hands, is he not to be considered at all? Said a manufacturer the other day: "I had been doing a large business up to the time of the panic. The prospect was so good that I kept increasing my machinery and enlarging my capacity. Now everything is dead and I am heavily in debt. I must economize. I must cut down my expenses. I must get my work done cheaper. In spite of all my economizing, 'I am liable at any time to be put in a hole and lose everything I have.'" Said another manufacturer: "If my men knew how much I owe the banks, if they knew the liabilities hanging over me, and the misfortune that is liable to be precipitated upon me at any time, they would not talk about low wages. If I fail my business goes to the dogs. No one else can do anything with it, so failure really means more to my employees than it does to me."

In these times of deep depression both the employer and the employed have enough to contend with. Their interests are mutual, and each depends upon the other. A spirit of conciliation and concession will benefit both.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Janesville is not the only Wisconsin city that has been investigating the electric light question this year. Milwaukee and Oshkosh are deep in the mazes. Milwaukee is unearthing information on the subject which we may as well take advantage of, for the same facts will be equally important to all cities studying the question. Almost all investigations go to show that it might be profitable for Milwaukee to erect a public lighting plant. But this does not prove that the same holds true of Janesville. Reports from forty cities operating their own electric light plants show an average cost of $77.58 per lamp per year, including interest, taxes and depreciation, for an average of 1,917 candle power, running an average of a little less than eight hours a night. This is more than Janesville will have to pay by contract for all night lighting, although the Janesville lights will be but 1,200 candle power. Had Janesville increased the requirement to 2,000 candle-power her contract at $75 a light, would have been slightly more favorable than the average for this part of the country.

School men in this part of the state are urging the claims of J. Q. Emery for state superintendent. Mr. Emery, who was president of the River Falls normal school until a year ago, proved himself to be an educator of purely modern type. A point in his favor is the fact that he is familiar with every branch of the Wisconsin schools. He will have strong Dane and Waukesha backing in the republican convention.

Maney Court-Martial Begins To-Day. ST. PAUL, Minn., May 23.—The court-martial of Lieut. Maney of the Fifteenth infantry on the charge of killing Capt. Hedberg at Fort Sheridan will begin to-day at Fort Snelling and all the officers of the court are now in this city.

MATCHLESS PIANO AS A PRIZE.

Janesville Deeply Interested In The Gazette Contest Now In Progress.

Many in Janesville who are not identified with the piano contest have examined with pleasure the piano in S. C. Burnham's & Co's window. The Shaw Piano Co. started, a stranger, a few years ago with merit; it commanded attention at once on account of its merit; it caught up immediately with the oldest and best manufacturers wholly upon merit; and by merit alone has it out-distanced a number of the old makers and today is one of the best known pianos in America. One of the best compliments that can be paid the Shaw piano is the fact that its competitors fight it harder than any other piano on the market. When The Gazette bought a Shaw piano to present to the most popular young lady we did so after careful investigation. We are satisfied that whoever wins the prize will never wish it had been of other make or pattern.

Pictures for Everybody.

There is a photographer in New York who is making money in a very queer business. He buys and collects photographs in different parts of the country, and has 1,000,000 of them systematically classified according to age, bearded and smooth faces and other distinctive features. Where does the profit come in? Thousands of people every year occasionally need a photograph to give a friend or to reproduce in a newspaper. They are in a hurry and only want one photograph. All that they have to do is to visit this artist, and in ten minutes he can find pictures that faithfully represent them. Nobody can tell the difference, and they could not be better suited if they sat for their photographs.

A Surprise Party.

A thunderclap from a cloudless sky could not create more surprise than the prices Ziegler is quoting on unlaundried shirts. Show window and another page.

No. 4 River Street.

Hooping Up

Our elegant line of negligee shirts. You should see them, at 50 cents and upwards. Some dealers ask 75 cents for what we sell at half a dollar.

TOO MUCH WIND

Is being wasted by our competitors, who lead in everything (Fairy tales not excepted) as to the immense amount of business that they are doing—on paper mostly—by selling their wares less than cost. Merchandise that must be sold for less than the cost to manufacture must be exceeding poor or of such an antique date that any price is gain.

We do not have that kind of goods in our place. We are making up many suits—buy all of the time and making our customers get honest value for their money—any who have ever dealt with us can verify the above.

IN HATS

We always were in advance on new things—selling so many keeps our stock bright and clean. If we would let the old timers accumulate we would gladly take 50 cents on the dollar for them. Our new straws are in and are charming. Some beauties at 50 cents. One price to all and everything marked in plain English figures.

Yours, Etc.,

KNEFF & ALLEN.

WHO FOR GOVERNOR NOW KOCH IS OUT

LOCAL SENTIMENT FAR FROM CENTRALIZED.

First District Ought to Have the Nomination, in the Opinion of Many—Caswell's Friends Are Encouraged—The Reasons Urged in Support of Various Candidates.

State politics jumped into prominence around town today with the announcement of Koch's withdrawal. There was much speculation as to the probable republican nominee, now that Milwaukee's "logical candidate" was out of the race. L. B. Caswell, Major Schofield and A. P. Lovejoy were the three names most frequently mentioned as Janesville's choice.

"Farmers around the county want Mr. Caswell, I think," said William Gunn of Rock. "He would be a strong candidate and a strong governor as well."

"I hear more talk of Schofield than anyone else up in the north end of the county," said R. P. Maltress, the Edgerton tobacco buyer. "That comes, I imagine, more from acquaintance than in any other way."

Janesville sentiment was united on one point—this part of the state deserved recognition.

"Mr. Monahan of Darlington is an avowed candidate," said Ogden H. Fethers. "He is fully qualified and has the benefit of a residence in the First Congressional district which is entitled to the governorship. I predict that he will be a strong candidate in the convention. I think that our district would be well satisfied with Caswell."

Caswell would be a very popular candidate," said James Sutherland.

Would Like to See a Home Candidate

"They have suggested nobody as yet," said William Ruger "who can out class our own candidate, A. P. Lovejoy. Mr. Lovejoy is a level headed business man, just such a man as the state needs."

"Republican success seems to be assured," said M. G. Jeffris "and the aim of the convention should be to select some man who can act as governor with credit to the state. We have in the party a number of men who possess every qualification. Mr. Monahan, of Darlington, would make an able governor. Mr. Caswell, of Port Atkinson, has shown by his public life that he is amply qualified to fill the place. We should look for the man whose strength will be shown in the office as well as in the campaign."

"This action of Koch's means a Caswell boom," was the way B. B. Eldredges voiced it.

"Taylor would look after the financial interests of the state as well as any man we could get," said Judge J. W. Sale. He might meet with bitter opposition at the polls, but would be a good governor if elected."

Echoes of Local Sentiment.

Others were questioned as to the local situation since Koch's withdrawal and made these replies:

A. H. Sheldon—Taylor is my man and has been from the first. He is perfectly clean and rigidly honest, a man of ability and a republican to his last hair. He would amount to more in the governor's chair than any man who has been named.

Treasurer Fathers—Won't Koch's withdrawal be likely to make easier sledding for Haugen. I have an idea that a good many people around here who were favorable to Koch also looked on Haugen with much regard. Taylor is all right unless he has been weakened by repeated candidacies.

W. F. Carle—Whoever it is must be a strong man. I have no sympathy for the people who say "we can elect anyone this year." If we put up a ticket in any way weak we will regret it. And above all things, whoever we select should be picked because he has brains and not because he is a good story teller.

There was a pleasant wedding party at St. Patrick's church this morning at 7 o'clock, the happy couple united in marriage being Michael Flannagan and Miss Maria McCue, both of this city. MAYOR FOR THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Signs the Ordinance and Says His Objection Was on Economical Grounds.

Mayor Thoroughgood declared today that he should offer no further objection to the issuing of high school bonds. He signed the ordinance and said in explanation of his action:

"I have had an interview with City Attorney McElroy and Mr. Cunningham, secretary of the school board, who is also an attorney. Although the vote as taken last election has been declared lost by several lawyers who have come to me without solicitation, the gentlemen named above together with the other attorneys consulted today by myself, believe the vote taken was legal. My only objection has been my desire to have the school question settled without a doubt of its legality. Why, one attorney told me I would become personally liable should I endorse the proceedings and be a party in negotiating the bonds on the issue of the vote of last election. I, however, find that absurd. And more—these same parties state the bonds would find no market. My ambition is to leave the office of mayor at the expiration of my term with at least as clean a record as when I went there. There are a number of aldermen whose idea of a new school has been exactly the same as mine. I believe it would have been good judgment to put up with inconveniences until these dull times are somewhat passed before undertaking more obligations. However, after consulting several attorneys and getting the indorsement of the school committee, the unanimous vote of the common council and the declaration of the people, I have affixed my name to the ordinance, and ask those people who differ on the legality of the vote to at once enter their protest if it is their intention of doing so and not wait until the issue is about ready. It has been said I have no children going to school and wished to crush the new school question. I have a daughter attending school and hope to have her in school many years to come. It will be a pleasure for me to see the man who can point his finger at any action of mine that has not (in my judgment) been for the interest of Janesville.

The fact of my attaching my signature to the school ordinance just passed, does not change my opinion regarding this being a bad time to enter into a transaction involving so much money. I believe those in favor of the school and those against, will feel that my actions in the matter have been based on considerations of economy, an acknowledgment to which I am entitled.

IMPLEMENTS FILLED 38 CARS
Big Shipment of Farming Tools Passed Through Janesville Today

Enough farming implements to cultivate all of Rock county passed through Janesville today. The Milwaukee Harvester company were the shippers and thirty-eight cars were filled to overflowing. Two ten wheel freight engines were used to haul the train which was a "double header." The implements were en route for Omaha, Council Bluffs and western points and came in on the Northwestern road. The train, which was gaily decorated with bunting, flags and trade banners, pulled out at 4 o'clock for the west.

Very Interesting.

The advertisements Bort, Bailey & Co. are running compose some of the most interesting reading matter that appears in The Gazette. Every reader's duty is to peruse them. COAL VERY SCARCE IN LOCAL YARDS.

JANESVILLE DEALERS GET
NONE FROM ILLINOIS.

Agent Johnson, of the Milwaukee & St. Paul, Makes the Rounds of the City Firms, Asking For All the Fuel That Can Be Furnished For Locomotives.

Janesville coal dealers are rapidly coming to the conclusion that the coal situation has become decidedly more serious and that the trouble with the soft coal miners will not be settled for a long time yet to come.

A few shipments of coal contracted for several weeks ago, are being received, but they are small and are stored away in the coal yards to meet the needs of consumers.

H. R. Johnson, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's local representative, made the rounds today buying up all the soft coal he could get. He found ten cars at J. H. Carpenter's, another lot at J. W. Hodgdon's and a little at one or two other yards.

"It all depends on the amount of coal we can scrape together whether the branch lines are kept running," said Agent Johnson.

J. H. Gately at the Janesville Coal Co. yards said he was not in shape to furnish any Illinois coal, but that two or three steam plants were running on Hocking coal.

"There is not much soft coal to be had," said J. W. Carpenter. "I understand that the cotton factory has plenty on hand but that the bat factory is getting short. Of course the demand has been reduced here by the fact that most of the steam plants have been shut down."

John Plowright—We can't get any cheap soft coal, but Hocking Valley coal can be had. One or two of the factories are running on this sort.

J. W. Hodgdon—I had considerable soft coal on hand and turned over considerable of it to the St. Paul road today. We are all right as far as hard coal is concerned and the only chance of shortage will be from railroads not having enough soft coal to run trains.

P. A. Maguire—Word came from Chicago this morning that a few car loads of soft coal could be had. I don't understand this to mean though, that the shortage has ended.

and of loved ones gone, and when you look over the hills, expecting only beauty and loveliness, you find only devastation and woe. Ziklag in ashes!

One day, in Ulster county, New York, the village church was decorated until the fragrance of the flowers was almost bewildering. The maidens of the village had emptied the place of flowers upon one marriage altar. One of their own number was affianced to a minister of Christ, who had come to take her to his own home. With hands joined, amidst a congratulatory audience, the vows were taken. In three days from that time one of those who stood at the altar exchanged earth for heaven. The wedding march broke down into the funeral dirge. There were not enough flowers now for the coffin lid, because they had all been taken for the bridal hour. The dead minister of Christ is brought to another village.

He had gone out from them less than a week before in his strength; now he comes home lifeless. The whole church bewailed him. The solemn procession moved around to look upon the still face that once had beamed the messages of salvation. Little children were lifted up to look at him. And some of those whom he had comforted in the days of sorrow, when they passed that silent form, made the place dreadful with their weeping. Another village emptied of its flowers—some of them put in the shape of a cross to symbolize his hope, others put in the shape of a crown to symbolize his triumph. A hundred lights blown out in one strong gust from the open door of a sepulchre. Ziklag in ashes!

I preach this sermon to-day, because I want to rally you, as David rallied his men, for the recovery of the loved and the lost. I want not only to win heaven, but I want all this congregation to go along with me. I feel that somehow I have a responsibility for your arriving at that great city. Do you really want to join the companionship of your loved ones who have gone? Are you as anxious to join them as David and his men were to join their families? Then I am here, in the name of God, to say that you may, and to tell you how.

I remark, in the first place, if you want to join your loved ones in glory, you must travel the same way they went. No sooner had the half-dead Egyptian been resuscitated than he pointed the way the captors and captives had gone, and David and his men followed after. So our Christian friends have gone into another country, and if we want to reach their companionship we must take the same road. They repented; we must repent. They prayed; we must pray. They trusted in Christ; we must trust in Christ. They lived a religious life; we must live a religious life. They were in some things like ourselves. I know, now that they are gone, there is a halo around their names; but they had their faults. They said and did things they ought never to have said or done. They were sometimes rebellious, sometimes cast down. They were far from being perfect. So I suppose that when we have gone, some things in us that are now only tolerable may be almost resplendent. But as they were like us in deficiencies, we ought to be like them in taking a supernatural Christ to make up for the deficits. Had it not been for Jesus, they would have all perished; but Christ confronted them, and said, "I am the way," and they took it.

I have also to say to you that the path that these captives trod was a troubled path, and that David and his men had to go over the same difficult way. While these captives were being taken off, they said, "Oh we are so tired; we are so sick; we are so hungry!" But the men who had charge of them said, "Stop this crying. Go on!" David and his men also found it a hard way. They had to travel it. Our friends have gone into glory, and it is through much tribulation that we are to enter into the kingdom. How our loved ones used to have to struggle! how their old hearts ached! how sometimes they had a tussle for bread! In our childhood we wondered why there were so many wrinkles on their faces. We did not know that what were called "crow's feet" on their faces, were the marks of the black raven of trouble. Did you never hear the old people, seated by the evening stand, talk over their early trials, their hardships, the accidents, the burials, the disappointments, the empty flour barrel when there were so many hungry ones to feed, the sickness almost unto death, where the next dose of morphine decided between gaily being reaved and an unbroken home circle? Oh, yes! it was trouble that whitened their hair. It was trouble that shook the cup in their hands. It was trouble that washed the luster from their eyes with the rain of tears until they needed spectacles. It was trouble that made the cane a necessity for their journey. Do you never remember seeing your old mother sitting, on some rainy day, looking out of the window, her elbow on the window sill, her hand to her brow—looking out, not seeing the falling shower at all (you well knew she was looking into the distant past), until the apron came up to her eyes, because the memory was too much for her?

But this scene of weeping o'er,
Past this scene of toil and pain,
They shall feel distress no more,
Never, never weep again.

"Who are these under the altar?"
the question was asked, and the response came, "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Our friends went by a path of tears into glory. Be not surprised if we have to travel the same pathway.

I remark, again, if we want to win the society of our friends in heaven, we will not only have to travel a path of faith and a path of tribulation, but we will also have to positively battle for their companionship. David and his men never wanted sharp swords and invulnerable shields and thick breastplates so much as they wanted them on the day when they came down upon the Amalekites. If they had lost that battle, they never would have got their families back. I suppose that one glance of their loved ones in captivity hurried them into battle with tenfold courage and energy. They said, "We must win it. Let each one take a man on point of spear or sword. We must win it." And I have to tell you that between us and coming into the companionship of our loved ones who are departed, there is an Amalekite, there is a Gettysburg, there is a Waterloo. War with the world, war with the flesh, war with the devil. We have either to conquer our troubles, or our troubles will conquer us. David will either slay the Amalekites, or the Amalekites will slay David. And yet is not the fort to be taken worth the pain, all the peril, all the besiegement? Look! Who are they on the bright hills of heaven yonder? There they are, those who sat at your own table, the chair now vacant. There they are, those whom you rocked in infancy in the cradle, or hushed to sleep in your arms. There they are, those in whose life your life was bound up. There they are, their brow more radiant than ever before you saw it, their lips waiting for the kiss of heavenly greeting, their cheek rosy with the health of eternal summer, their hands beckoning you up the steep, the feet bounding with the mirth of heaven. The pallor of their last sickness gone out of their face, never more to be sick, never more to cough, never more to limp, never more to be old, never more to weep. They are watching from those heights to see if through Christ you can take that fort, and whether you shall rush in upon them—victors. They know that upon this battle depends whether you will ever join their society. Up! strike harder! Charge more bravely! Remember that every inch you gain puts you so much farther on toward that heavenly reunion.

European Customs in the Orient.
Central Asian potentates are growing very European in their ways. Since the Emir of Bokhara visited St. Petersburg he has quite adopted western habits, throwing open his palace to Russian ladies, and giving regular balls. After European comforts he finds his palace very bare, so has invited a French architect to build another in European style.

Hiding Their Money.
Some extraordinary but well-authenticated stories of the bank of France are related. One day a sheep ate up a hundred-franc note belonging to a butcher. The butcher ran into the house of a friend, seized a gun, and shot the sheep. He had no sooner done this than the owner of the gun rushed up. "That was an expensive shot of yours for me," he said. "What do you mean?" asked the butcher. "Well," said the other, "I had seventy francs in bills hidden in the barrel of that gun!" The sheep's carcass was pretty thoroughly searched, and enough of the pieces of the notes recovered so that the bank redeemed them all.

THE best investment in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

JNO. MALLON, Esq.,
No. 21 McLean St.,
Adams, Cincinnati, O.,
writes: "I took sick with dropsy, lost my appetite, could not sleep, became feverish; always thirsty, lost all strength, stomach became painful, breath short and had to give up work. The best physicians in Cincinnati failed to help me. My limbs and body were swollen to enormous size, and I was suffering terrible agony. The doctors all said I could not get well again, that I was liable to drop dead at any moment. My wife sent for the priest, to prepare me for death. While waiting for death, I remembered reading of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and thought I would try it as a last hope. When I had taken three bottles, I was almost well. The swelling entirely disappeared and I was soon able to resume work. My health is better now than it has been in twenty-five years."

By order of the common council.

GEO. H. BATES, City Clerk.
Dated Janesville, Wis., May 22, 1894.

SPECIFICATIONS.

Specifications for grading, curbing and paving that portion of South River street, in the city of Janesville between the southerly line of West Milwaukee street and the northerly line of Pleasant street.

GRADING.
Said street shall be graded so as to bring its surface to a uniform depth of eleven inches below the established grade of the same and in doing said grading, the earth is to be scooped off to the required depth, so as not to loosen the soil below.

Also in all places in said street where trenching has been done for water, gas or sewer pipes or connections of any kind, such place shall be made firm and secure against unequal settling.

If any filling is done in bringing said street to this grade it must be done with sand or gravel free from perishable materials.

After the surface has been shaped to conform to the pavement above, it shall be thoroughly rolled or tamped to make it secure against any settling, which having been done a ballasting of at least four inches of clear sand or fine gravel shall be spread in such a manner, that the sub-grade of said street shall be uniformly eight inches below the established grade of the street, said ballasting to be well rolled or tamped so as to make it firm.

The cross section of said street, from gutter to gutter being shaped so as to form a segment of a circle, having a rise of one foot for its ordinate at the center of said street.

The grading of said street and the ballasting thereof shall be done under the directions of and to the satisfaction of a special committee appointed by the mayor of said city.

All material excavated over and above what is used in embankment shall be deposited by the contractor beyond the bounds of said street without extra charge.

The work shall be carried on in such a manner so as to impede and obstruct travel on said street as little as possible; and yet be consistent with the speedy and economical completion of said work.

CURBING.
The curbstone is to be of good, durable, Waukesha limestone, free from seams, cracks or other defects.

Each stone shall be not less than three feet long, twenty four inches wide, and four inches thick.

The top of said curbstone is to be dressed to a true line and to a depth of ten inches; and the ends of each stone to a depth of five inches, so that close joints shall be formed.

Said stones are to be firmly set on their edges with sand or gravel, and the grade given by the above mentioned committee and are to be securely set on a bed of fine gravel at least six inches thick, well tamped and to be thoroughly packed with sand or gravel at least six inches in width at their backs.

Provided however, that any curbing now upon said street, that shall in the judgment of said committee be unsatisfactory, and in accordance with the requirements, shall be permitted to remain in place, or be reset, if the alignment of the street shall so require.

FLOORING.
The surface of said street, having been brought to conform to the sub-grade, shall be dressed and having on its surface a ballast of at least four inches of good clean sand or fine gravel, well and thoroughly tamped; there shall be laid a lengthwise of said street, flooring, formed of good, sound, green hemlock boards free from rot, sap, wind shakes or other defects, one inch thick, and from eight to twelve inches wide, and sixteen feet long; said boards are to be laid in close contact with each other and to break joints through, their edges to be straight and their ends sawed off square, so as to form close joints, and present a smooth, compact and uniform surface, conforming to the sub-grade of said street, preparatory to laying the paving blocks.

PAVING.
Between the curbing on either side of said street and resting upon the flooring above specified shall be a paving of cedar blocks, which shall form the road bed of said street.

Said blocks shall have a uniform length of six inches, sawed from good, sound, live cedar posts, of from four to ten inches in diameter free from bark, rot and other defects; they are to be placed on their ends upon the flooring, in close contact with each other, and to be kept well driven up so as to form close joints, and a firm road bed.

During the progress of laying the paving, blocks of different diameters must be so arranged and placed with reference to each other, as to leave the smallest practical space between the blocks.

Spaces approaching a square form must be avoided, and no split blocks of less than three inches in diameter will be allowed.

All spaces between the blocks are to be filled with screened gravel of a quality, size and screening satisfactory to the special committee hereinbefore mentioned. The same to be thoroughly tamped with proper tools until solid; and refilled and retamped until the spaces have been completely filled with firm and solid tamped gravel; the whole work to be done under the supervision and to the satisfaction of said above mentioned committee.

After the filling shall have been completed, the top surface of the paving shall be swept off with a coarse broom, and left uncovered until it has been inspected by the special committee, above mentioned. After such inspection and acceptance, the paving shall be covered with fine screened gravel to a depth of one inch.

CROSS WALKS.
At the intersection of Dodge street and said River street there shall be four cross-walks, which shall be made by raising the pavement in the usual manner three inches rise in the center of the walk; the same to be twelve feet wide and so constructed that the crown will be even and of such grade as directed by said above mentioned committee.

The street upon its completion shall be left free from rubbish and impediments of all kinds.

That portion of said street adjacent to and adjoining the improvement, and those portions of cross streets adjoining the same shall be left in as good condition, as just prior to the commencement of the work herein specified.

All connections of the pavement with the sewer, gas or water opening, shall be substantially and properly made, and the street upon completion shall have a uniform smooth surface, conforming to the final grade and crown of said street, and it shall be left by the contractor in perfect order and condition.

It is expressly understood that the contractor shall not be entitled to any allowance on account of injury to said street, by reason of rains or otherwise during the progress of the work herein specified; or before the same has been completed and accepted as herein stated.

It is expressly understood that the price per square yard named in the contract for paving said street, shall cover the whole cost of grading, furnishing, preparing and laying the floor and curbing blocks as herein specified and contemplated; and that the price per lineal foot named in the contract for curbing, shall cover the whole cost thereof, including the taking up and relaying of old curbing, when required, and the furnishing, placing, setting and proper securing in position new curbing as herein specified. No extra allowance whatever will be made.

These specifications are hereby declared and understood to be a part of the contract for grading, curbing and paving said street and doing all the work and other things so far as the same are included in said specifications.

PRaise the Shaw FOR MANY MERITS.

FAMOUS PIANISTS PRAISE THE GAZETTE PRIZE.

Everybody Who Has Examined the Instrument at S. C. Burnham & Co's Says the Things Said in Its Favor Were Justified—Conditions of the Contest.

What is thought of the Shaw piano by pianists, vocalists and teachers. This is not hard to find out.

When The Gazette chose an instrument it picked out the best to be had. The girl who wins this instrument may well rejoice. Here are a few statements published in St. Paul papers by those who have used the Shaw:

OSCAR L. LIENAU, tenor singer and teacher of the voice writes:

ST. PAUL, MINN., AUG. 2, 1892. GENTLEMEN: I am extremely pleased with the Shaw Piano, which I purchased of you. I have used it for some months and consider it a superior instrument. Its clear full tone and elastic touch is a delight not only to myself, but to my many friends, its sweet singing quality being especially noticeable, and I shall be pleased to recommend it to my pupils, etc., I am, yours respectfully, OSCAR L. LIENAU.

Frederick Leavitt, the expert piano tuner:

ST. PAUL, MINN., MAY 1, 1892. GENTLEMEN:—As compared with other first class instruments, the Shaw piano has the charming characteristics of each—all in one. Not a break in the scale. No rattling in the action. Never harsh nor metallic in tone. Stays in tune. Such is my admiration for the piano that I would not trade, "even up" for any upright made. My own Shaw has not required any attention during the past year and is in almost perfect tune now. Yours respectfully, FRED. LEAVITT.

Professor William Manner, organist at the Cathedral and leader of the German Mannerchor Singing society says:

ST. PAUL, MINN., MAY 6, 1892. I admire the Shaw Piano very much. Their construction is most excellent, the tone is round, rich and mellow, and altogether I consider them one of the very best pianos made today in this country. I can cheerfully recommend them. Respectfully yours, W. MANNER.

Those who wish to learn for themselves the quality of piano offered by the Gazette are urged to visit S. C. Burnham & Co's store. Several patterns of the Shaw are there shown. These instruments rank in the markets of the country just as Chickering's, Steinways and Knabes, the four occupying first place. Everybody who has seen the Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

ZIEGLER'S

Is the Spot. The bright and shining north star. The magnet that draws the economical, industrious, thrifty cash paying person within our gates. To such Ziegler always says: "Keep a tight hold on your pocket-book while running the gauntlet of 'time-payment,' 'pay as you please,' 'fake' and other 'wheedling' stores." Merit and cash only seek to win at Ziegler's. To get credit and pay the Dutchman's 1 per cent, all you want is a little feather in your hat and a little powder on your face and you are fixed. Ziegler don't row in such a boat. His motto is: "Buy for cash, sell for cash, and do business on truthful and mercantile lines. Ziegler proposes for the next three days to emblazon his name on the memories of the citizens of Janesville and vicinity more than ever before. Read the lines below. Look at the show window. Examine the shirts, compare the prices, and if you don't at once become a convert to Ziegler, you don't know the value of goods.

BORT, BAILEY & COMPANY.

A lady said to us the other day, "I think you are mean to cut prices the way you do and bust the other merchants business." That remark has worried us and we don't believe her view of the case is just. We want to ask the forty odd thousand people in Rock Co. ---what you think about it? If a man pays a hundred cents on the dollar to his creditors and buys every dollar's worth of his stock for cash--- hasn't he the right to sell it for whatever price he pleases?

Does the mechanic who today is working on half time and has a family to cloth, think it is mean business?

Does the factory girl, who today is only earning $4, when she used to earn $8, think it is mean?

Does the farmer, who is only getting about half price for his produce, think it is mean business?

NO IT IS NOT MEAN BUSINESS.

We realize that the time has come in business when the merchant who buys for cash, sells for cash, and does business on the closest living margin will be the successful merchant and we are going to keep giving the people splendid bargains every day even if a few ladies do think it is mean to cut prices.

HERE ARE THREE OF OUR LATEST PURCHASES.

50 Dozen Ladies Ribbed Vests at 5 Cents Each. 80 Dozen Child's Black Ribbed Hose 12 1-2c worth 20c.

30 Dozen Ladies Shirt Waists Worth 75 cents at 50 cents.

They are bargains; everyone of them. We want the trade of the people, we want the poor man's trade, we want the rich man's trade. We will use you all alike and give you all full value every time.
